LB 964

SENATOR DeCAMP: Pardon.

PRESIDENT: We will have to have a roll call or we will have to announce the vote at this point.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay, roll call, what the hell. Get people here.

PRESIDENT: Let's get the people back. Before we have a roll call, I would remind everyone that we are on Final Reading and the Sergeant at Arms will bring everybody back into their desk unless they are excused. We are going to have a roll call vote on the Final Reading of LB 964. Record your presence so we see who is here because people did evacuate the place pretty quick. Everybody, record your presence please. Senator Wesely, Senator Schmit. Senator Marsh, will you record your presence? We are trying to get everyone to record your presence so we know who is here so we can proceed with this roll call vote on Final Reading. Is Senator Warner here? Senator Wesely, Senator Warner. Those of you who just came in, we are on 964, and since there weren't enough to vote, the question was asked that we have a roll call vote to get everybody here first. So that is what we are doing. We are trying to make sure that everyone is here, and while we are doing this, Jim Wynkoop and his wife are here back there. Before you leave, Jim, we want to say welcome back and everybody greet Jim back here. Nice seeing you, Jim. Senator Warner is the only one we are waiting for. While we are waiting, there are some guests of Senator Nichol. Are they still under the South balcony, Bill? They are under the South balcony, Byron and Fern Johnson from Gering, Nebraska. Would the Johnsons stand up. Welcome to your Legislature, Johnsons. And now Senator Warner is here so we will proceed with the roll call. All those in favor of LB 964 on Final Reading vote aye, opposed nay, and a roll call vote. Proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Roll call vote taken. (See page 2011, Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Would all the members please get back to your seats now. We are having the same problem we had a little while ago. We have so much commotion with everybody moving around that the Clerk cannot even account on the roll call. Please return to your desk and listen for the roll call and vote accordingly. Proceed, Mr. Clerk.
